

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Activity professionals have significantly contributed to improving the lives of many citizens who reside in long-term care facilities; and,

Whereas, The South Dakota Health Care Association, in conjunction with the American Health Care Association, recognize they work with health care professionals, care providers, and regulatory agencies to enhance the lives of those served by long-term care facilities; and,

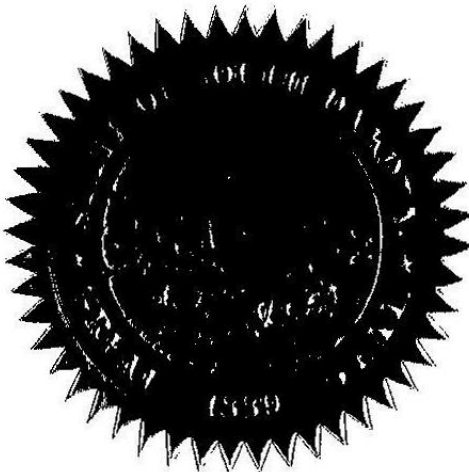

Whereas, Activity professionals assist with programs related to mental and physical stimulation, community involvement, service involvement, and a variety of activities related to maintaining normal life pursuits for the elders and handicapped of our communities:

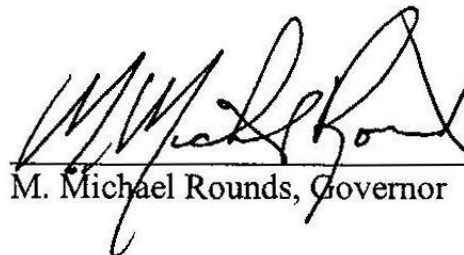

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of January 18-22, 2010, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to recognize and thank these special individuals for the vital role they play in improving the quality of life for South Dakotans.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
